

Stanford Specific Information for Applicants

Stanford Premedical Association

Premed students often find the path to medical school to be challenging at times. We

Here are a few Stanford-specific pieces of information that you may find helpful to know during the medical school application process:

- Stanford does not provide a Committee Letter for Medical School applicants.
- You may find that some medical schools require a Dean's certification:

Please refer to the Dean's Certification Forms Instructions and Information, the information regarding Certification Forms, and FAQs about Certifications for more details on how to navigate the process.

Coursework:

- Please use your Official Stanford Transcript (not your Unofficial Transcript). You can request an Official Transcript through Axess.
- When entering a course where lab work is included, enter the exact course title as it appears on your transcript and add "and Lab". Example: Chem 31A, Chemical Principles I would be entered as Chemical Principles I and lab. Select "Combined Lecture".
- For courses taken through BOSP, there is no additional transcript required. These courses should be treated the same as Stanford courses taken on the main campus, and entered as indicated in the AMCAS Instruction Booklet
